COACHING
INN GROUP

Welcome to the Coaching Inn Group

The Coaching Inn Group has a particular passion for lovely old historic inns and is fortunate enough now to have over 20 of these iconic buildings in our collection, several of them former coaching inns. We have established a reputation for refurbishing, revitalising and breathing life back into these inns, creating elegant, comfortable and well-priced accommodation, tempting menus, relaxed and stylish bars and coffee lounges where friends, families and business people can relax and enjoy everything we have on offer.

Our vision for the future is based around our core value of 'Unlocking Potential'. From our properties to our people and everything in between, we take every opportunity to invest in developing all aspects of our business to give our guests the best possible experience.

As a company we are rapidly expanding and bringing new inns into the Coaching Inn Group. You can see the latest additions to our group by visiting our website.

Bell Inn Hotel

Stilton, Cambridgeshire

As far as ideal locations go, Stilton is a great place to enjoy a break and the iconic Bell Inn Hotel is at the heart of this delightful historic village. Welcoming overnight guests and day visitors for over 500 years, The Bell Inn Hotel is full of old-world charm and character but has carefully balanced it with modern day comforts for an exceptionally enjoyable stay.

The Bell Inn Hotel dates back to 1500, although its origins could be even earlier, as there is a record of a local innkeeper in 1437. Located on the old Great North Road, which connected London with Scotland, The Bell was a favourite resting stop for medieval coaches heading north and south. Just 8.5 miles from Peterborough, the 23 bedroom hotel is the perfect base to explore Cambridgeshire, host an event or break up a long journey.

Today's building dates from 1642 but boasts all the modern amenities you expect from a four star Inn. Our restaurant and bar are famed for their quality, with the menu regularly being awarded an AA rosette, and our on-site delicatessen offers a wide range of local and international cheeses.

- 23 individually-styled bedrooms
- Perfect base for exploring Cambridgeshire
- Close to the A1 and Peterborough
- Conference and meeting facilities
- Licensed for civil ceremonies and weddings
- Perfect for weddings and birthday celebrations
- Private dining available
- Free WiFi
- Dogs allowed in certain areas and rooms

Castle Hotel

Conwy, North Wales

The North Wales town of Conwy is a UNESCO world heritage site encased by the imposing thirteenth century walls of Conwy Castle. The town provides the perfect base from which you can explore many attractions, from the sandy beaches of Llandudno to the rugged mountains of Snowdonia National Park.

The Castle Hotel has all the quintessential charm of a traditional coaching inn and sits just a few hundred metres from both the Castle and the harbour. The hotel has become famous for the warmth of its hospitality and exquisite food, attaining two AA rosettes and four star Inn status. Many of the dishes contain fresh, local produce brought daily from the harbour. You can also enjoy ultimate relaxation at 'Healing Hands', our on-site beauty and holistic therapy treatment rooms, which offer a variety of services to help you unwind. A visit to this iconic Welsh Inn will not disappoint.

The Feathers

Ledbury, Herefordshire

In the ceremonial county of Herefordshire, Ledbury is a medieval market town that is big enough to be vibrant, but small enough to maintain its sense of community. Setting itself apart from the other quaint Herefordshire market towns, at the centre of Ledbury is the black and white Grade 1 listed market hall that was built in 1653 and still holds weekly markets on Tuesdays and Saturdays. The town is home to many independent shops, including Hay Wine, Raft Fashions, Wyebridge Homeware and the kitchen and lifestyle emporium, Ceci Paulo.

Boasting a wealth of authentic features, The Feathers Hotel is a historic 16th century timber-framed hotel, situated at the heart of the town. The comfortably equipped bedrooms are tastefully decorated with all the features of a modern hotel including Freeview TV and WiFi. With a choice of dining settings, and delightful food and drinks menus, there is something for everyone at The Feathers.

Golden Fleece Hotel

Thirsk, North Yorkshire

As well as being a picturesque Yorkshire town, Thirsk was also the home of renowned vet and writer James Herriot. Regarded as the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales National Park and the North York Moors National Park, Thirsk is a quintessential English market town. It is also famous for its racecourse, 15th century church and the cobbled market place, dating from medieval times, is still the centre of commerce today.

The Golden Fleece takes pride of place overlooking the market square. This 16th century inn exudes warmth and a real Yorkshire welcome. Steeped in history, and tastefully decorated, the Inn has comfortable dining and drinking areas to enjoy. Our 26 bedrooms have been refurbished to reflect their individual style and feel and the Farmer's Room provides the ideal venue for private celebrations or business meetings. The Golden Fleece offers the perfect getaway after an invigorating day exploring the local shops, the surrounding countryside or a successful day at the races.

Golden Lion Hotel

St Ives, Cambridgeshire

The old river port of St Ives nestles on the banks of the Great Ouse river and is just 15 miles from Cambridge. Known the world over for its chapel on the 15th century bridge, the town has over 150 listed buildings and lives under the watchful eye of one-time resident Oliver Cromwell. Local markets are held every Monday and Friday and on the first and third Saturday of each month. Between the fascinating history, the heritage of the waterfront and the many footpaths along the ancient water meadows you are spoilt for choice for reasons to visit this lovely part of Cambridgeshire.

The Golden Lion is a truly classic coaching inn offering the weary traveller 21st century comfort in a delightful 18th century building. It offers spacious drinking and dining areas and a welcoming ambience as locals and visitors alike flock for a range of freshly made hot drinks, delicious cakes and excellent food. To the rear of the building there is a split level courtyard which is perfect for relaxing in the warmer months. All your accommodation needs are fulfilled by 27 well-appointed bedrooms set around an airy lobby. The Cromwell function suite is found adjacent to the courtyard and is the ideal venue for private celebrations or business meetings, catering for up to 60 guests.

King's Head Hotel

Richmond, North Yorkshire

Founded by the Normans in 1071, Richmond is a town of unique character and beauty. Spend the afternoon exploring nooks, crannies and alleys, admiring the mixture of medieval and Georgian architecture, learn the history of the region's Green Howards regiment or, after dark, try the infamous ghost walk – if you dare. Alternatively so many of the visitors come to Richmond for just one thing – walking. Whether it's a stroll around town, a hike through the wooded valleys along the River Swale or venturing further afield, Richmond provides the perfect base.

Built in 1720, The King's Head stands majestically over the vast cobbled market place. This iconic inn reopened after a major refurbishment in June 2016 and has delighted all who have visited since. The charming eatery welcomes you for breakfast, coffee and cake, lunch or dinner and the afternoon teas are a real highlight. The bar provides the perfect place to relax before retiring to one of our 24 tastefully decorated bedrooms and the King's Room, Panel Room or glamorous Ballroom provide the perfect venue for any celebration.

Old Bridge Inn

Holmfirth, West Yorkshire

Holmfirth is situated in the picturesque Holme Valley, just four miles from the Peak District. Known locally as Little Hollywood, it is the home of TV classic 'Last Of The Summer Wine'. Why not visit when the town hosts one of its many vibrant festivals or take in some live music at the Picturedrome? So whether you want to enjoy the local countryside, sit on Nora Batty's steps or relax and gaze at the stone built cottages nestled in the Pennine hills, you will certainly not be disappointed.

The historic Old Bridge Inn sits imposingly alongside the river Holme, at the heart of this market town. The Inn is famed for its traditional Yorkshire fayre, well-kept cellar, including a good range of local ales, and warm welcome. It's the perfect spot to enjoy a tasty breakfast, share a coffee and cake with friends or sample a delicious lunch or dinner. All can be enjoyed in the contemporary bar and eatery or al fresco on the patio overlooking the river. Our 21 bedrooms have all been refurbished to a high standard throughout, providing the perfect escape after a long day exploring the surrounding area.

Rutland Arms Hotel

Bakewell, Derbyshire

Peak District perfection! For those looking to explore the sights and sounds of the area, Bakewell lies equidistant from the beautiful towns of Matlock and Buxton and the Rutland Arms Hotel itself is nestled comfortably on the outskirts of the famous Chatsworth estate. The hotel dates back to 1804 and is set in the majestic Peak District National Park in the picturesque town of Bakewell.

The Rutland Arms in Bakewell, once acclaimed as 'Derbyshire's most famous inn', was built in 1804 to meet the needs of the aristocracy, gentry, and other wealthy folk on their visits to enjoy the countryside delights of the High Peak District. It was constructed as part of a wider development that redefined the town centre. Together with its grand stable complex, akin to that of any stately home, The Rutland Arms succeeded in attracting inter-city coach operators who were persuaded to adopt new routes with Bakewell as staging post, bringing much-needed business to the town.

- 32 highly appointed bedrooms
- Stunning galleried restaurant
- Perfect base for exploring the Peak District
- Conference and meeting facilities
- Perfect for walkers, ramblers and cyclists

Swan Hotel

Stafford, Staffordshire

Stafford is the county town of Staffordshire, sitting at the heart of the West Midlands. It is thought that this historic town was founded in around 700AD by a Mercian prince called Bertelin who, according to legend, established a hermitage on the peninsula named Betheney. The beautiful Stafford Castle was built by the Normans on the nearby hilltop to the west about 1090. It was first made of wood, and later rebuilt of stone. It has been rebuilt twice since, and the ruins of the 19th century gothic revival castle on the earthworks incorporate much of the original stonework.

The Swan Hotel, Eatery & Coffee House is nestled in the centre of Stafford's historic and pretty high street and has been providing a warm welcome nearly 300 years. Our lovingly restored 18th century Coaching Inn now acts as a vibrant, modern hub for stylish accommodation, dining, relaxed coffee shop, social and family celebrations. Following a comprehensive modernisation it has once again become a focal point for residents and visitors to the town.

Oundle, Northamptonshire

From its Georgian streetscapes to the impressive limestone buildings, Oundle is a glorious market town, rich with heritage, culture and community spirit. The Talbot sits proudly in the centre of Oundle and is a charming 17th century coaching inn bursting with history.

The Talbot originally dates from the 7th century and its oldest building is clearly medieval in design, albeit with a modified 16th century gallery, and is complete with original graffiti dating back to the 1700s etched into its windows. The Inn is famous for its imposing New Street and inner courtyard facades, which were erected with stone from Fotheringhay Castle in 1630. The staircase is believed to be that which Mary Queen of Scots famously descended on route to her execution at the castle on 8 February 1587.

In recent years, The Talbot has undergone sympathetic renovation to restore the character of the building in order to offer the comforts expected by the modern hotel guest, whilst retaining the charm and antiquity of this idyllic Inn.

Three Swans Hotel

Hungerford, Berkshire

Tucked away in the far west of Berkshire, alongside the Kennet and Avon Canal, is the traditional market town of Hungerford. Close to the M4 motorway and on a mainline to London, Hungerford is world-renowned for its array of antique shops and fairs, as well as its unique boutiques. Between the 11th and 14th centuries, the manor of Hungerford passed between the Crown and various Duchies of Leicester and Lancaster, and in 1362 it passed to John of Gaunt, a name that is strongly associated with the town today.

The Three Swans hotel is perfectly positioned on the market place and takes pride of place as one of the most traditional and historic buildings in the town. The hotel maintains the original archway where horse drawn carriages would enter into the large rear courtyard, now used for outside dining.

Naturally the Inn has evolved over the centuries and now boasts 25 well-appointed bedrooms, a relaxed and friendly eatery and coffee house and delicious, locally sourced food and drink. It provides the perfect sanctuary after spending an energetic day perhaps climbing Walbury Hill, the highest in the south-east of England, enjoying the views from Silbury Hill, communing with our ancient past at Avebury Stone Circle or having had a day at Newbury Races, only 8 miles away.

Market Harborough, Leicestershire

Market Harborough is a thriving market town. With an abundance of independent shops and an 800-year-old market three days a week, the town truly is a destination packed with tradition and charm. The town is quintessential England at its best, with rolling hills, picturesque lakes, woodlands and rivers just a stone's throw away.

The Three Swans, with its distinctive high street frontage and sign, may look small from the street, but offers two bars serving a great range of premium spirits and local ales, a large AA rosette restaurant, award-winning conference and events facilities and 59 recently refurbished bedrooms. The former 16th century coaching inn blends traditional hospitality with the comfort of a modern hotel and has been providing excellent food, drink and warm hospitality for many years. Perfectly placed in the heart of the town, the hotel has its own car park, making it the perfect base to experience the area.

Boston, Lincolnshire

The market town and small port of Boston sits at the heart of Lincolnshire's dramatic Fens, at the edge of the Wash. Historically the town was a centre of trade, second only to London, and this rich history is still evident today. The town's most notable landmark is St Botolph's, one of the largest parish churches in England, which has one of the tallest Medieval towers in England, known locally as the 'Boston Stump'. The town provides the perfect base for visiting the surrounding area, including two RSPB nature reserves and the seaside town of Skegness.

Overlooking the river Witham, this delightful 300 year old former coaching inn offers a variety of settings to enjoy an informal brunch, lunch, afternoon tea or dinner. For a more formal setting the Riverside restaurant is the ideal place to experience some of the finest food in the area. In the warmer months our relaxing patio area is the perfect spot to enjoy our popular live music events. And if you're looking to host a wedding or event, our function suite is the ideal venue for any celebration. Our 26 well-appointed bedrooms provide the idyllic escape after a long day exploring the surrounding area.

- 26 individually-styled bedrooms
- Conference and meeting facilities
- Perfect for weddings and birthday celebrations
- Licensed for civil ceremonies and weddings
- Free car parking (please use postcode PE21 8QD)
- Free WiFi
- Dogs allowed in certain areas and rooms

White Hart Royal Hotel

Moreton-In-Marsh, Gloucestershire

Moreton-in-Marsh is one of the principal market towns of the Cotswolds, England's largest Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Situated on Fosse Way; a Roman road that linked Exeter to Lincoln, that later became the traditional London to Worcester coaching route, the town has excellent links to the nearby villages and towns, as well as a main line rail link to London. It grew up in the thirteenth century as a market town with a wide main street, narrow housing plots and tight back lanes and there is still a busy market every Tuesday.

The White Hart Royal Hotel is a historic 17th century coaching inn, boasting many original features including exposed beams, flagstone floors and original inglenook fireplaces. Our chefs prepare every dish using only the highest quality local produce and we also offer an extensive wine list. Each bedroom is unique in character with many including roll-top baths and four-poster beds, ensuring the White Hart Royal Hotel is the perfect, relaxing host for your Cotswold adventure.

- 28 individually-styled bedrooms
- Perfect base for exploring the Cotswolds
- Ideal for walking and cycling breaks
- Conference and meeting facilities
- Private dining available
- Free WiFi
- Dogs allowed in certain areas and rooms

Wynnstay Hotel & Spa

Oswestry, Shropshire

Located in the Shropshire market town of Oswestry, The Wynnstay Hotel & Spa boasts 31 bedrooms, a large function suite, a modern gym and spa, a fine dining restaurant and two bars serving traditional British and continental dishes, all surrounding the historic crown bowling green.

Once a well-known coaching inn, The Wynnstay Hotel & Spa has been an important part of the town of Oswestry since 1727. The perfect resting place for those travelling between Liverpool and Cardiff or London and Holyhead, The Wynnstay has also welcomed a number of esteemed guests, including a young Queen Victoria.

The impressive facade is a fine example of typical Georgian architecture and the building has been sympathetically restored, renovated and extended throughout. The old coaching house has been converted into a modern gym and spa, whilst a former grocers has been transformed into the contemporary Wilsons Bar & Restaurant.
